

EVERY PARENT'S MID-SUMMER TO-DO LIST:

From Last School Term:

- Find the backpack
- Find the Lunchbox
- Sharpen pencils
- Find the notebooks and pens,
- Finish summer reading

NOW:

- Get a new supply of masks
- Put sterile wipes and masks in the backpacks
- Get tablet distance-learning tablets ready (just in case)
- Make appointments for COVID-19 tests
- Make the quarterly tuition payment

BUT, WAIT...

The Ibrahim family, living in a poor and notoriously dangerous part of Lod chose, several years ago, to send their three children to the Primary School, confident that their children will become part of a shared Arab and Jewish future. They haven't missed one payment in all these years... but then the father lost his job to COVID-19 and

One of their children is a close friend of Dina's who was enrolled in the Primary School two years ago. COVID-19 has also found Dina's family, where the father's job loss and no success in finding a new one has ended in the father's decision to seek a divorce. Dina's mother continues to work but worries about continuing to cover Dina's tuition with one salary...

Two friends, two families, one virus.
One worry for thirty of our hundreds of children.

One goal: $35,000 to keep thirty Jewish and Arab children holding hands, drawing others into their extended bilingual circle, showing us how to support and sustain the future they are committed to.

OUR MID-SUMMER 2020 TO-DO LIST?

- Give a handful of Arab and Jewish schoolchildren a helping hand.
- Watch them, watch their families change their future.
- Feel joy in knowing you had a hand in making it possible.
